

COLORADO
WATER CENTER
COLORADO STATE UNIVERSITY

Colorado Ag Water Alliance
"Committed to the preservation of agriculture through the wise use of Colorado's water resources"

Ag Water Summit – December 2 – Aims Community College, Greeley CO

8:00 - 9:15	Registration and Breakfast
9:15 - 9:25	Opening Remarks - Karen Schlatter, Colorado Water Center and Greg Peterson, Colorado Ag Water Alliance
9:25 - 9:50	What Research Partnerships Does the Ag Community Need? - James Pritchett, Colorado State University
9:50 - 11:00	Impactful Research Panel - Erik Wardle, Madeline Wilson, Ryan Bailey, and Annie Overlin Colorado State University and Colorado State University Extension
11:00 - 11:15	Break
11:15 - 12:15	Roundtable Discussion on Research - Opportunity to listen to what research is being done at universities, and for members of the agricultural community to provide feedback. This format will be done with researchers making quick presentations to their table, and then switch to the next
12:15 - 1:15	Lunch
1:15 - 2:30	River Compacts: How We Stay In Compliance With Our Compacts Every Day - Deb Daniel, Republican River Water Conservation District, Joe Frank, Lower South Platte Water Conservancy District, Amber Pacheco, Rio Grande Water Conservation District and Bill Tyner, Tyner Engineering & Sciences
2:30 - 3:00	How to Talk to an Irrigator - Paul Kehmeier, Colorado Department of Agriculture
3:00 - 3:15	Break
3:15 - 3:45	Getting Involved in Water Policy - Nora Flynn and Jeff Rodriguez, Colorado Water Conservation Board
3:45 - 4:15	Ag Drought Resilience Projects - Greg Peterson, Colorado Ag Water Alliance
4:15 - 4:30	Closing Comments
4:30 - 5:30	Happy Hour and Networking

Learn more and register at www.coagwater.org/summit